

Tickets on sale for South Coast Jazz August 15th at Port Dover Arena

JULIANN Kuchocki has a rural vision for South Coast Jazz.

The second annual event will take place August 15 at the Port Dover arena.

As founder, Ms. Kuchocki envisions in five years South Coast becoming the most prestigious rural jazz festival in the world.

She foresees jazz "infiltrating" Norfolk County throughout the year at wineries and other locations, capped by a summer main event seven to 10 days long.

The festival began last year at Burning Kiln and Blueberry Hill Estates wineries.

It expanded to Port Dover this year inside and outside the arena.

Tickets are on sale for two shows on August 15.

The daytime show from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. will be for all ages. It will feature a youth stage.

Renowned Canadian jazz singer Holly Cole will headline the evening show for adults from 5:30 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Both shows have 600 tickets for sale.

The festival will have something for everyone, Ms. Kuchocki told county councillors on June 2.

If the Aug. 15 shows sell out, Ms. Kuchocki will look at extending the festival to August 14.

She hopes the festival will spread to Simcoe, Waterford, Delhi and other places in the future.
